

Lumen (La memoria) (Italian Edition)

Cracovia, ottobre 1939. Maria Kazimierza, madre superiora del monastero di Nostra Signora delle Sette Pene, viene trovata uccisa da un colpo di pistola nel chiostro del convento. La badessa è in odore di santità, le mani sono segnate dalle stimmate e le vengono attribuiti dei miracoli. Un'indagine spinosa attraverso cui conosciamo Martin von Bora, il giovane e aristocratico capitano diviso tra l'obbedienza a Hitler e il senso personale di giustizia coltivato da un'educazione umanistica. Una ingegnosa combinazione tra romanzo poliziesco e romanzo storico.
